Description

The Garmin Montana 760i is a rugged, glove-friendly handheld GPS navigator with a 5-inch touchscreen and built-in inReach satellite communication for two-way texting and SOS alerts even outside cell coverage. It includes an integrated 8-megapixel camera that geotags photos for retracing routes, plus GPS/Galileo positioning and ABC sensors (altimeter, barometer, compass) for accurate navigation and elevation tracking. The unit ships with preloaded topographic and street maps, 32GB of onboard storage for additional maps, and supports satellite imagery overlays. Built to MIL-STD-810 and IPX7 standards for shock, water, and weather resistance, it offers up to 24 hours of battery life in GPS mode...
