Product Overview

Reed R1020 Fused Test Lead Set

Manufacturer: Reed Instruments

Model: MEA-REE-01730

Availability: In Stock

Description

A pair of heavy-duty test leads with built-in fuses for extra protection against overload while probing live circuits. The sharp stainless-steel tips pierce insulation for quick contact, and the set is rated 1000V/10A with CAT III and CAT IV certification. Includes two spare fuses so you're covered if one blows.
