Description

The REED R7150-NIST is a professional-grade combination tachometer pairing a longer-range laser for non-contact RPM readings (up to about 6.5 ft from the target, 10-99,999 RPM) with contact-mode measurement from 0.5 to 19,999 RPM via included adapters. It features a reversing 5-digit LCD that flips orientation depending on the measurement mode, memory for min/max/last readings, and runs on 4 AA batteries. It ships with an ISO/NIST-traceable calibration certificate.
